Health Care Workers at Kaiser Permanente on Strike

45,000 frontline HealthCare workers are launching a 5-day strike against Kaiser Permanente starting Tuesday, October 14. Health care workers are looking for a fair contract and protecting the future of patient safety and care.

View Full Picket Line Schedule Here

A group of healthcare workers, including men and women of various ages, are shown in a picket line. They are holding various signs, some of which read "FAIR CONTRACT NOW", "ON STRIKE", "CARE shouldn't cost us our health, our safety, our future", and "STRIKE for PATIENT SAFETY". They are wearing blue shirts, some with "unacuhcp" and "#TogetherWeRise" printed on them. The background is a blurred indoor setting, likely a hospital lobby.
