In The Spotlight this week!

A New Year

Happy New Year to all of you.

A year ago this week, eighteen of our members lost their homes in the Eaton and Palisades fires. Many more were displaced. This calamity brought out the best in our Union, which provided emotional and financial support as it has in the past. This is work to be proud of, and your generosity makes it possible through our Hardship Fund and our donations to MPTF (Motion Picture Television Fund), the Entertainment Community Fund, and the Walsh/DiTolla/Spivak Foundation. I thank you for supporting them, and I thank those organizations for supporting our members.

I don't know what this year has in store for us and our industry, but at least I know that we will be working at Local 728 to better serve our members through contract enforcement and organizing jobs so more of you get the benefits of your hard work. I do know that CA tax incentives are bringing work back to our state, and I never doubt that the demand for entertainment will continue to grow.

Here's to a prosperous 2026.

In solidarity,

Greg Reeves
Business Representative - Secretary

MPTF New Year, New Goals

Caring is Infinite

Have you made any resolutions for this year? Goals should be manageable and attainable. Please see this message from Naomi Rodda, licensed clinical social worker from The Motion Picture Television Fund.

The beginning of January often brings with it the dreaded “New Year’s Resolutions”.

A resolution is defined as “a formal written statement or decision adopted by a governing body to express its opinion, declare a position, or direct action”. Anyone who has submitted a resolution for consideration at the IATSE Local or International level knows how they are structured. New Year’s Resolutions also can take on this flavor, often to our personal detriment if we are unable to meet our internal standards of what the resolution means to us. So, rather than setting ourselves up for potential disappointment, self-judgement, or even failure by “resolving” to (insert your personal plan for change /overhaul here), I challenge all of us (myself included) to set short-term, achievable goals that set us up for success. We can make small, incremental changes that improve our overall well-being, that are within our reach, and that we do not abandon by February 1. I will be taking my dog for longer walks and striving to get more sleep.

What is your plan?

In solidarity always,

Naomi
