In The Spotlight this week!

Latest News from the 2026 Mid-Winter GEB

I'm updating you after attending the IATSE General Executive Board (GEB) meeting last week. This bi-annual meeting brings together hundreds of IATSE locals from the U.S. and Canada to share their ongoing battles, some won and some lost, in an effort to help to better serve you.

VP Michael Miller of the IA West Coast Office acknowledged the ongoing work contraction, but also shared signs of increased production due to expanded state incentives that will provide more work for our members, and generate benefit contributions to our plans.

Among the many encouraging stories was our participation in Operation Warm, providing coats and shoes to children and families in need in our community.

There is also the recent organizing effort in securing IATSE jurisdiction at the new LA Convention Center. The creation of hundreds of IATSE jobs across trade shows, live theater, motion pictures, and television, represents tens of thousands of members getting Union wages and protections.

But there is also a call to action here. Please call in your jobs, especially if it is non-union, so we can work to flip projects and secure the benefits you deserve and rely on. This process is anonymized so you can feel protected. We have many success stories, but we can only help if we know about projects attempting to operate without contracts.

The IATSE advocacy for a federal tax incentive continues. In fact, Local 728 was recognized as a GOLD Level Honoree in the IATSE Solidarity Awards. Our members donated over $10,000 to support the advocacy efforts in Washington to get more work! I ask you to join me in making monthly donations to the PAC.

As the Tri-Guilds (SAG, DGA, and WGA) head into negotiating new contracts, the importance of organizing productions cannot be overstated. The bargaining leverage we hold next year rests on a foundation of union members locking arms and holding to their oaths in pursuit of working union jobs. If we believe the union is indispensable, employers will be forced to agree.

In solidarity,

CA Tax Credit Incentive Program 4.0

What is California Tax Credit Incentive Program 4.0?

Program 4.0 is the most ambitious and impactful Film & Television Tax Credit expansion to date. The program modernization efforts propelled California to remain competitive worldwide while maintaining a leadership position with the best locations, facilities and crews around the globe!

Program 4.0 will run for 5 fiscal years: July 1, 2025 – June 30, 2030.

Program Enhancements:

- Raising the per year credit allocation amount from $330 million to $750 million per year - that is more than double the previous cap!
- Effective tax rate:
 - 20-25% → 35% for feature and independent films, new TV, mini-series and pilots
 - 25% → 40%* for relocating TV series
 - 5% or 10% uplift for out of zone or local labor hires and visual effects
- Credit is reduced to 35% after the first season is filmed in California*
- Qualified expenditure caps
 - $100 million → $120 million for feature and independent films new TV, mini-series and pilots
 - $10 million → $20 million for Independent films

Program Performance to Date:

In the first four rounds since Program 4.0 launched in July:

- 119 projects accepted into the program
- $4.17 billion in expected economic activity
- More than 25,000 cast and crew jobs
- Over 4,000 filming days expected statewide

Economic Facts You Should Know:

For every dollar of tax credit awarded California receives:

- $24.40 in economic output
- $16.14 in GDP
- $8.60 in wages
